

Parents Club Combines BBQ and Baby Blanket Collection for Needy
(Published June 8, 2007 in the Laguna Beach Independent)

Tuesday, June 12 - Parents Club Combines BBQ and Baby Blanket Collection for Needy

Laguna Beach Parents Club will hold their first annual "Bar B Q & Baby Blankets Evening" at Bluebird Park on Tuesday, June 12, beginning at 5 p.m.

The Parents Club is providing all the fixings for a hot dog dinner and asks that in return guests bring donations of new or gently used baby blankets and burp cloths, or packages of diapers or baby formula that volunteers at the Laguna Relief and

Two club members get ready for a Parents Club baby gear drive.

Resource Center will put into baskets for distribution by the Laguna Beach Community Clinic to local families in need.

No need to cook dinner or wash dishes on Tuesday night, just bring the entire family over to Bluebird Park, have a great time and help others, said Christa Henry, one of the event's organizers.

The club encourages the public to drop off one or more of the requested baby supplies at Bluebird Park during the event. If you cannot bring a donation to the park on June 12 and would like to help, items can be dropped at one of the following homes: 3137 Alta Laguna Boulevard or 455 Legion Street. Donations will be accepted until Monday, June 18. For more information, call Katsura Bassett at 497-3396.